The Sacramento Children's Chorus audition workshop will provide techniques to help singers prepare for a college entrance audition, honor choir, or musical theater audition. Participants will learn audition etiquette and techniques, and a mock audition will help empower your singer to be confident at their next opportunity. By practicing the process with working professional, singers will gain self-confidence and learn the tools for success.

Carrie Hennessey

Known for her soaring voice and richly nuanced characters, soprano Carrie Hennessey is consistently thrilling audiences and critics in opera and concert appearances around the world. Ms. Hennessey is a professional operatic/classical singer, and has many years experience in a variety of styles like jazz, choral, rock and musical theater. Her style of teaching is fun, enthusiastic and to the point, and her approach to singing is holistic. Singing is good for the body and soul!

Alex Grambow

The SCC artistic director believes that music provides children with a unique way to learn about the world and a safe and nurturing opportunity for self-expression. Mr. Grambow graduated from the University of the Pacific with a Bachelor of Music degree with an emphasis in vocal music. His performing experience includes Music Circus, Woodland Opera House Theatre Company, Sacramento Choral Society and Orchestra.
